

Important Bird Area Monitoring Workshop

Date: 11th - 13th June 2019 | Venue: Musa Room, IITA Ibadan

Title	Training in Biostatistics and Geographic Information System
Organizing Unit/ Project	IITA Forest Center
Trainers / Facilitators	Prof Shiiwua Manu, Dr Yahkat Barshep, Dr Shomboro Karau, Hilde Koper, Adewale Awoyemi, Ademola Ajayi, Omobamidele Awoyemi, Taiwo Adams
Objectives	To train young biologists in data collection, analysis and interpretation
Target Audience	Undergraduate (4 th /5 th year) and postgraduate students
Prerequisite	Currently studying and/or working in the field of Conservation Biology in Africa Interest in Ornithology
Training Language	English
Materials Required	Laptop and appropriate clothing for field sessions (long sleeves, trousers & boots)
Training Methods	Workshop
Expected Outcomes	Participants will be able to: i. Collect and analyze data using Microsoft Excel and R Statistical Software ii. Use QGIS iii. Cite and organize literature review
Training Fee	Nil
Registration	Please fill out and submit the online Application Form . Successful applicants will be contacted by email. The registration deadline is 24 May 2019
Accommodation	IITA International House
Payment	The Forest Center will cover the following workshop costs: accommodation, feeding, training and certificate However, participants will be responsible for their travel cost
For More Information	Please contact Adewale Awoyemi a.awoyemi@cgiar.org

